List ministries and/or other spiritually-oriented activities with which you are involved and briefly explain your role in each.

2. Why do YOU want to go on a mission trip?

Have you ever been on a mission trip? _____ If yes, give approximate date(s), location, and purpose of that trip.

3. Has the Lord confirmed this to you? If so, in what way(s)?

4a. Depending on the trip's purpose, your role may be supportive, especially if this is your first mission trip. This means you may not be involved in any direct ministry (i.e. teaching, counseling, etc.). You would serve the team as a prayer warrior. You might be asked to serve in other ways (i.e. carry luggage, set up, clean up, cook, etc.). How do you feel about this?

b. In fact, you might travel 2-3 times before being involved in direct ministry. Are you willing to go to learn and understand what God wants you to be about?

5. God created you uniquely. What personal gifts, strengths, weaknesses should be considered regarding your role on a Mission Team?

6. Wherever we go, our purpose is to SERVE the local church. Ministry to which you feel called in the States may not be appropriate, needed, or timely within the culture to which you are sent. Though sent out under the authority and covering of the Fellowship, we submit to leadership in the local church. First time team members may NOT give personal prophecies NOR do personal counseling without church leadership present. Prior to the trip, are you willing to commit time to meet as a team to become better informed and for prayer?

7a. Team size varies depending upon country and trip purpose. Has God put a particular country/ministry on your heart?

Argentina ____ Dominican Republic ____ Poland ____ Romania ____ Wherever needed ____

Other _____ If you feel a definite country/ministry call, explain briefly.

b. Have you counted the cost of being sent out – conditions vary greatly; but, in most cases, you will not experience the same type of living conditions, food, etc. as you are used to in the U.S. Are you prepared to sleep wherever our hosts assign you? Not be able to shower, wash your hair, etc. daily? Eat foods you don't like?

c. Being sensitive to each country's hospitality possibilities, some teams will consistently be small. If there is not a place available for you on the next trip would you like to be considered for future teams?

Plan of Salvation Talk Sheet

Suppose your friend “John Smith” is not a Christian; however, he has just visited the Fellowship of Christ and is interested in hearing your “testimony”. He says he believes he is ready for you to lead him to Christ. What would you tell him about your testimony? And how you would lead him to Christ? (also include a “prayer for salvation”)
